

Mandala Stamp with Hand-Drawn Tangled Details

EIN PROJEKT AUS UNSERER LIVE-SHOW - BRAND SHOWCASE - 8. APRIL 2022

ÜBER DIESES PROJEKT

Using a large mandala stamp as your starting point, you add hand-drawn tangled patterns and fine liner details to create a unique, layered artwork. The result is a beautiful, intricate design that looks complex but is achievable for all skill levels.

SCHRITT FÜR SCHRITT

1SCHRITT 1 VON 7

Stamp the mandala design onto an 8 by 8 inch piece of heavyweight cartridge paper in the corner, ensuring the stamp is clean and pressed firmly.

DIESEN SCHRITT ANSEHEN - 19:45

2SCHRITT 2 VON 7

Use a regular archival fine liner pen to add bubble shapes and curved lines within sections of the stamped mandala, following the existing lines as guides.

DIESEN SCHRITT ANSEHEN - 22:00

3SCHRITT 3 VON 7

Bring in dual brush pens in colours such as red to add fine lines and fill in selected areas of the design with colour.

DIESEN SCHRITT ANSEHEN - 23:15

4SCHRITT 4 VON 7

Add watercolour effect by applying water with a brush to blend the dual brush pen colours, allowing them to move naturally across the paper.

DIESEN SCHRITT ANSEHEN - 24:00

5SCHRITT 5 VON 7

Sprinkle table salt onto wet watercolour areas to create a textured, pitted effect.

DIESEN SCHRITT ANSEHEN - 26:00

6SCHRITT 6 VON 7

Use a tortilla blending stump to soften pencil shading and create three-dimensional effects around the design.

DIESEN SCHRITT ANSEHEN - 29:00

7SCHRITT 7 VON 7

Add final details with gel pens in metallic colours such as silver and gold to highlight specific areas and create a layered finish.

DIESEN SCHRITT ANSEHEN - 30:00

TIPPS AUS DER SHOW

- You can hold a pen and do this—it does not require artistic skill, just the ability to follow lines.
- Each piece of artwork you create will be completely unique because you are adding your own details.
- You can use just a corner of the stamp on a smaller card rather than filling a whole page.
