PASO A PASO

PASO 1 DE 10

Position your white card blank on the stamping mat, placing it slightly to one side to allow space for stamping. Use the grid lines on the mat to help align the card.

PASO 2 DE 10

Select two or more ink pad colours of your choice. Pink and orange work well together for this watercolour effect.

PASO 3 DE 10

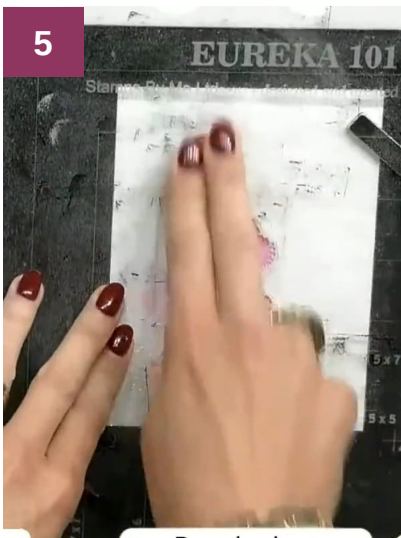

Spot the ink colours onto the solid portion of the lamination stamp, distributing them across the design. Use orange and pink inks to create a watercolour effect on the stamp surface.

PASO 4 DE 10

Spray the inked stamp with water to create a watercolour blending effect. The water will cause the pink and orange inks to blend together on the card stock.

PASO 5 DE 10

Press the stamp firmly onto the card stock and hold for a few seconds to allow the ink to transfer. The watercolour effect will create a beautiful pink and orange gradient pattern on the white card.

PASO 6 DE 10

Carefully lift the stamp away from the white card to reveal the watercolour gown design in pink and orange tones.

PASO 7 DE 10

Clean the stamp with a cloth to remove excess ink and allow it to dry before returning it to the carrier sheet.

PASO 8 DE 10

Align the detail stamp with the line art portion over your watercolour stamped image, using the visual guide on the packaging as reference to position it correctly.

PASO 9 DE 10

Stamp the detail layer over your watercoloured gown using black or gold ink. This adds definition and outline to the design. Position the stamp carefully to align with the coloured image beneath.

PASO 10 DE 10

Add a sentiment stamp to the bottom of your card. The example shown uses 'You are ONE OF A KIND' stamped below the gown image to complete the design.

CONSEJOS DEL PROGRAMA

- The lamination technique is forgiving - the detail layer does not need to line up perfectly with the watercolour base.
- You can use any ink pads from your stash; the technique works with all brands.
- If you do not want the watercolour effect, you can stamp the solid portion without water for a clean, graphic look.
