

Tarjeta plana con paneles y detalles marcados

UN PROYECTO DE NUESTRO PROGRAMA EN DIRECTO - MY PODCAST - 10 DE JUNIO DE 2024

EL PROYECTO TERMINADO

SOBRE ESTE PROYECTO

Create an elegant panelled card featuring alternating decorative papers and scored details. This project combines white card stock with gold glitter paper and delicate floral patterned panels to create a sophisticated layered design. The technique involves precise scoring and panel placement to achieve a professional finish that's perfect for special occasions.

1

PASO 1 DE 10

Take a standard white card blank and trim decorative panels from the floral patterned card stock. Use your trimmer to cut the panels to size, ensuring they will fit neatly onto your card base.

2

PASO 2 DE 10

Cut panels from your chosen decorative paper to fit down the sides of your card base. Leave a white border visible at the edges for contrast. Use adhesive to attach the panels in position.

7

PASO 7 DE 10

Position your glittery embellishment panels on the white card base. Use the grid lines on your cutting mat to ensure they are placed evenly and aligned properly.

8

PASO 8 DE 10

Position your chosen floral design paper or stamped image onto the card front. Smooth it down carefully with your hands to ensure it adheres properly to the scored panel.

VER ESTE PASO - 33:00

9

PASO 9 DE 10

Adhere the gold glitter panels to the back of the card to create a coordinated striped design. Position them to align with the front panels for a cohesive look.

PASO 10 DE 10

Trim any excess card stock from the bottom edges of your card to neaten the finish. Use both hands to smooth and check the edges are aligned before trimming if needed.

CONSEJOS DEL PROGRAMA

- You don't need to use everything from a card kit; select pieces that work with your design.
- Alternating panel colours and patterns creates visual interest without overwhelming the design.
- Save off-cuts of card stock to use as filler pieces to hide joins and gaps.
