

Simple Watercoloured Floral Design with Pen Markers

UN PROYECTO DE NUESTRO PROGRAMA EN DIRECTO - CREATE AND CRAFT TV - 11 DE MARZO DE 2024

SOBRE ESTE PROYECTO

Create a beautiful watercoloured floral design featuring delicate orange blooms with golden foiled outlines. Using watercolour pen markers, you'll add vibrant colour to individual petals on pre-foiled designs, building up soft gradients and depth. This simple technique produces stunning results in minutes, perfect for cards or framed artwork.

PASO A PASO

PASO 1 DE 8

Select a page from the Stamps By Me Hot Foiled Colouring Book featuring the botanical design you wish to colour. Gently push up along the perforation line whilst holding the page in place, then carefully tear away to remove the page from the book.

4

PASO 4 DE 8

Squeeze the barrel of the water brush pen until the colour comes through to the brush tip. Test on scrap paper to ensure the colour is flowing properly.

5

PASO 5 DE 8

Using the brush tip of your watercolour marker, apply a small amount of orange pigment to one of the flower petals. Start with light pressure to build up the colour gradually.

6

PASO 6 DE 8

Dampen a clean brush with water and drag the orange colour outward from the centre to blend and dilute it across the petal, creating a soft gradient effect.

7

PASO 7 DE 8

Continue adding colour to adjacent petals using different shades of orange and coral. Use the watercolour brush to blend the colours, allowing the gold foil outlines to act as natural boundaries between the petals.

8

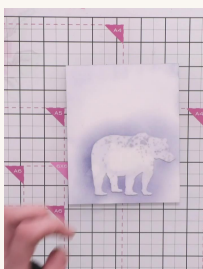

PASO 8 DE 8

Allow the finished watercoloured floral design to dry completely before handling or mounting.

CONSEJOS DEL PROGRAMA

- The gold foil will resist the colour, so you can paint freely without worrying about staying within lines.
- It is easier to add more colour than to take it away, so start with a small amount and build up gradually.
- You can use any medium on watercolour card stock—watercolours, pencils, pens, or acrylics—because the foil acts as a resist.
