

Watercolour-Effect Lamination Stamp Card with Tulips

UN PROYECTO DE NUESTRO PROGRAMA EN DIRECTO - MY PODCAST - 19 DE FEBRERO DE 2024

SOBRE ESTE PROYECTO

Make stunning greeting cards with a beautiful watercolour effect using a clever lamination stamp technique. These elegant designs feature delicate tulips and floral-adorned portraits in soft pinks, purples and greens with gold accents. The two-part stamping system creates an authentic painted look without any brushwork - the solid stamp holds ink and spray, while the outline stamp adds crisp definition.

4

Apply green and teal inks to different areas of the stamp to create depth and variation in the foliage.

5

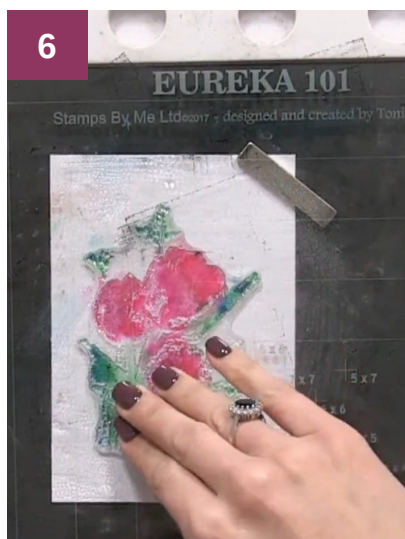

PASO 5 DE 11

Spray the inked stamp directly with water, allowing the pink, green and blue colours to bleed and blend together on the stamp surface.

6

PASO 6 DE 11

Press the stamped image firmly onto your white card blank to transfer the watercolour effect. Ensure even pressure across the entire floral design to achieve a complete transfer of the pink tulips and green foliage.

PASO 7 DE 11

Allow the stamped card to dry completely before proceeding. The watercolour effect from the lamination stamping needs time to set properly.

VER ESTE PASO - 20:30

8

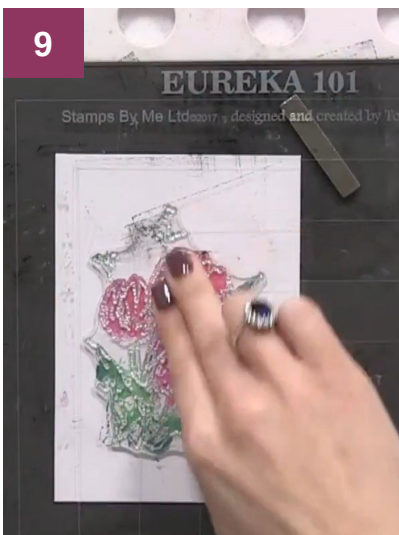

PASO 8 DE 11

Clean the stamp thoroughly to remove all ink. Ensure the lamination carrier sheet is completely dry before proceeding to the next step.

10

PASO 10 DE 11

Ink the outline stamp in black and press it onto the card to define the floral design. Ensure the stamp aligns with the watercolour background.

11

PASO 11 DE 11

Add a sentiment stamp such as 'Wake up and be awesome' to complete your card. Position it in the lower portion of the card front to finish the design.

CONSEJOS DEL PROGRAMA

- Do not attempt to line up the outline stamp perfectly; the designs are forgiving and the slight misalignment adds to the artistic, hand-drawn quality.
- Using two shades of the same colour, such as green and teal, creates a more convincing watercolour effect.
- The outline stamp does not need to align precisely with the coloured portion to look effective.
