PASO 2 DE 10

Score along the hinge lines of the die-cut floral panel. Fold the panels inward to create an envelope-like wrap that will fold around your card base.

PASO 3 DE 10

Take a pink card blank and a piece of white cardstock. The white piece will be used to layer onto the pink card base.

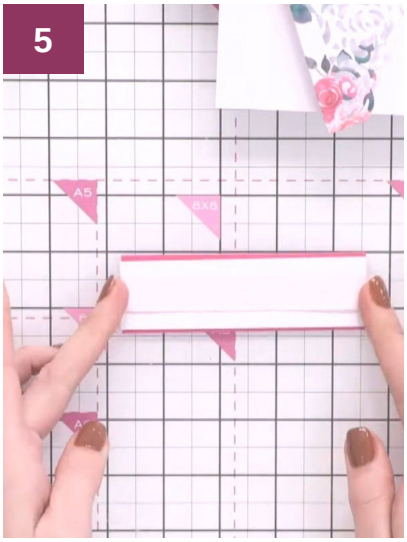
PASO 4 DE 10

Create a decorative ribbon bow by taking a length of satin ribbon and folding it into loops. Secure the loops in the centre with adhesive tape to hold the bow shape in place.

VER ESTE PASO - 21:15

5



PASO 5 DE 10

Layer a second, smaller pink ribbon loop on top of the first loop. Use double-sided tape on the back to secure it and build dimension.

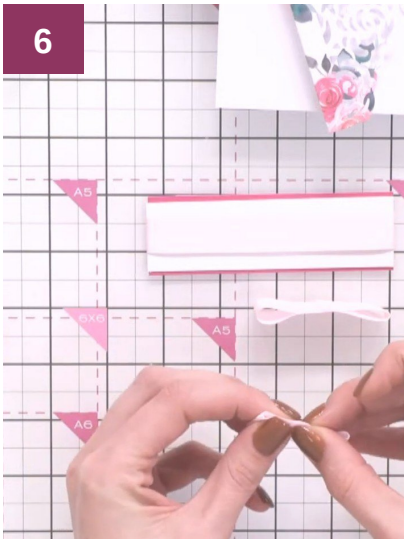
6



PASO 6 DE 10

Wrap a thin strip of ribbon around the middle of the layered bow loops. Secure the ribbon at the back with glue to create the finished bow shape.

8

PASO 8 DE 10

Apply glue to the back of the white wrap and fold panel. Position it onto the pink A6 card base, ensuring it is centred to frame the floral design.

PASO 9 DE 10

Layer the dragonfly die-cuts onto the card, positioning them above the ribbon bow. Stack the teal base layer, white middle layer, and detailed top layer together before adhering to create a dimensional embellishment.

VER ESTE PASO - 41:00

PASO 10 DE 10

Trim a pre-printed sentiment from the collection using scissors or a craft knife. Attach the sentiment to the front of the card or inside using adhesive.

VER ESTE PASO - 47:15

CONSEJOS DEL PROGRAMA

- Use both left and right dies separately to create a proper reflection without an ugly cut edge.
- Uncoated watercolour papers can be stamped, sanded, or run through embossing folders for added texture.
- You can place the dragonfly inside the card as a surprise element rather than on the front if preferred.
