

Mandala Stamp with Hand-Drawn Tangled Details

UN PROJET DE NOTRE ÉMISSION EN DIRECT - BRAND SHOWCASE - 8 AVRIL 2022

À PROPOS DE CE PROJET

Using a large mandala stamp as your starting point, you add hand-drawn tangled patterns and fine liner details to create a unique, layered artwork. The result is a beautiful, intricate design that looks complex but is achievable for all skill levels.

PAS À PAS

1ÉTAPE 1 SUR 7

Stamp the mandala design onto an 8 by 8 inch piece of heavyweight cartridge paper in the corner, ensuring the stamp is clean and pressed firmly.

Use a regular archival fine liner pen to add bubble shapes and curved lines within sections of the stamped mandala, following the existing lines as guides.

VOIR CETTE ÉTAPE - 22:003*ÉTAPE 3 SUR 7

Bring in dual brush pens in colours such as red to add fine lines and fill in selected areas of the design with colour.

VOIR CETTE ÉTAPE - 23:154*ÉTAPE 4 SUR 7

Add watercolour effect by applying water with a brush to blend the dual brush pen colours, allowing them to move naturally across the paper.

VOIR CETTE ÉTAPE - 24:005*ÉTAPE 5 SUR 7

Sprinkle table salt onto wet watercolour areas to create a textured, pitted effect.

VOIR CETTE ÉTAPE - 26:006*ÉTAPE 6 SUR 7

Use a tortilla blending stump to soften pencil shading and create three-dimensional effects around the design.

VOIR CETTE ÉTAPE - 29:007*ÉTAPE 7 SUR 7

Add final details with gel pens in metallic colours such as silver and gold to highlight specific areas and create a layered finish.

ASTUCES DE L'ÉMISSION

- You can hold a pen and do this—it does not require artistic skill, just the ability to follow lines.
- Each piece of artwork you create will be completely unique because you are adding your own details.
- You can use just a corner of the stamp on a smaller card rather than filling a whole page.
