PASSO PASSO

PASSAGGIO 1 DI 16

Using a black pen, draw fluffy clouds freehand on white cardstock. Create various sizes in a loose, organic style with rounded, bumpy edges.

PASSAGGIO 2 DI 16

Draw a heart shape freehand with a black pen on the pink paper. Make the outline fairly thick to help with fussy cutting later.

PASSAGGIO 3 DI 16

Using a grey alcohol marker, outline the inside edge of each cloud shape to add dimension and prevent them looking flat.

Blend the watercolour pen colours by adding a touch of water with a brush or water pen to create a watercolour effect. Allow the water to evaporate, then layer additional colours on top to build up depth and dimension.

PASSAGGIO 8 DI 16

Stamp the bunny rabbit image from the Eureka 101 stamp set onto white cardstock. Ensure you stamp only the bunny and hand, avoiding the letter or mailbox elements.

PASSAGGIO 9 DI 16

Position strips of yellow masking tape horizontally across the top and bottom of your stamped image to create a square aperture, leaving the centre section exposed for your sky background.

PASSAGGIO 10 DI 16

Apply yellow pigment ink lightly across the masked area using a brush or sponge applicator. Work gently to create a soft base for the sky background.

CONSIGLI DALLA PUNTATA

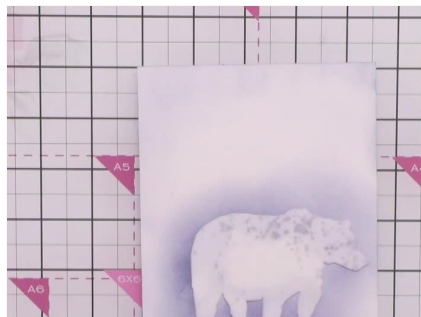

- You don't need dedicated cloud or heart stamps; freehand drawing with a pen works beautifully and adds a personal touch.
- If your fussy cutting isn't perfect, using a thick black outline helps disguise any imperfections.
- Watercolour pens blend well and work just as effectively as alcohol markers for colouring the balloon.
