

Hand-Painted Tree Line Watercolour Card with No-Line Ink Pad

UN PROGETTO DALLA NOSTRA DIRETTA - MY PODCAST - 9 GIUGNO 2025

IL PROGETTO

Create a stunning hand-painted watercolour landscape card featuring a serene winter tree line scene. Using the innovative No-Line Ink Pad technique, you'll paint delicate evergreen trees against a soft purple, pink and blue sky with a snowy foreground and water feature. This clever method uses invisible watermark guides beneath your watercolours to help you achieve professional-looking results with accurate placement and beautiful blended colours.

PASSAGGIO 2 DI 10

PASSAGGIO 3 DI 10

Repeat stamping the tree silhouette several times across the white card panel, varying the heights to create a natural tree line effect. Ensure each impression shows enough detail to guide your watercolour painting later.

PASSAGGIO 4 DI 10

Wet your paintbrush with clean water and dampen the area where you've stamped the first tree, following the watermark outline.

PASSAGGIO 6 DI 10

Using a darker green from your watercolour palette, add depth and shadow to the tree. Build up the colour gradually with your brush, layering the paint rather than applying it heavily all at once.

PASSAGGIO 7 DI 10

Continue wetting and painting each remaining tree with green watercolour, varying the intensity of the green to create visual interest across your tree line composition.

CONSIGLI DALLA PUNTATA

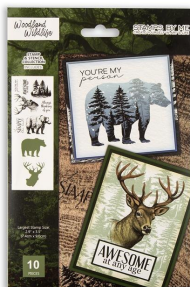

- The No-Line Ink Pad creates only a faint watermark that disperses when water is applied, so it won't show in the finished piece.
- Don't use too much water when dampening the stamped areas, or the image will blend too much and lose definition.
- You can create additional elements like water or landscape features beyond the stamped design to personalise your card.
