

Watercoloured Embossed Floral Card with Vintage Wood Panel Effect

UN PROGETTO DALLA NOSTRA DIRETTA - MY PODCAST - 20 GENNAIO 2025

IL PROGETTO

Create a beautiful vintage-style card featuring watercoloured embossed florals with a distressed wood panel effect. This project combines embossing, watercolouring, and layering techniques to build depth and dimension. The finished card showcases soft blue and purple tones with white highlights for an elegant, aged appearance.

PASSO PASSO

PASSAGGIO 1 DI 14

Cut a piece of watercolour card to size and place it inside the White Rose embossing folder, ensuring the card is positioned correctly within the folder.

PASSAGGIO 7 DI 14

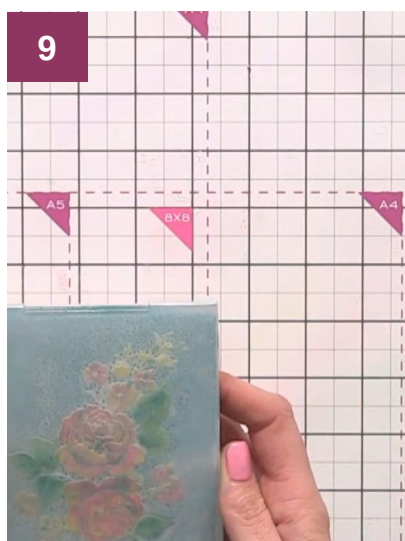

Ink up the embossing folder with peacock feathers oxide ink pad, swiping it across the raised design to cover the floral pattern.

GUARDA QUESTO PASSAGGIO - 36:00

PASSAGGIO 8 DI 14

Lightly spray the inked embossing folder with water to help transfer the ink to the paper. The layers can be up to seven deep, so ensure even coverage.

GUARDA QUESTO PASSAGGIO - 49:45

PASSAGGIO 9 DI 14

Place the painted card back into the inked embossing folder with the white rose design and run it through the die cutting machine to emboss the design over the watercoloured flowers.

GUARDA QUESTO PASSAGGIO - 51:30

PASSAGGIO 10 DI 14

Use a white ink pad to pounce over the darker areas of the embossed floral design to bring back highlights and add detail to the watercoloured surface.

11

PASSAGGIO 11 DI 14

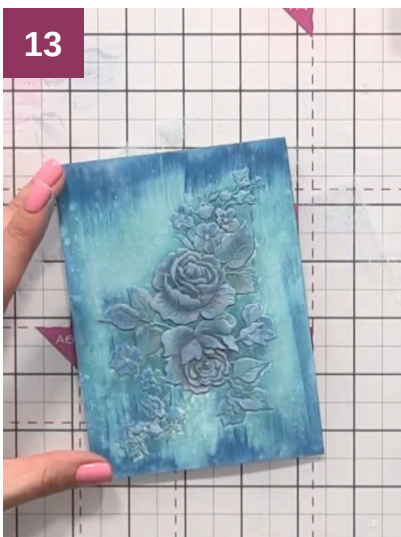

Apply black ink to the embossed design on the turquoise panel using an ink pad. Run the panel through the die-cutting machine with the embossing folder again to deepen the shadows and add dimension to the floral design.

PASSAGGIO 12 DI 14

Flick water onto the card surface to create a crackle effect. Use a piece of tissue to gently mop up the excess ink, creating a distressed, vintage finish on the blue watercoloured background.

13

PASSAGGIO 13 DI 14

Use a white gel pen to draw faux wood panel lines across the blue watercoloured background to create a vintage wood effect. Draw the lines vertically down the card to mimic wooden planks.

14

PASSAGGIO 14 DI 14

Using a white pen or marker, add fine highlights to the embossed roses to make them stand out against the aged blue background. Focus on the raised petals and edges of the flowers for maximum contrast.

CONSIGLI DALLA PUNTATA

- Work petal by petal with watercolour, placing colour at the bottom and sides of each petal for a natural watercolour finish.
- The watercolour card allows you to move and blend colours even after they have dried, unlike regular card stock.
- You can recover from dark ink by layering white ink on top to bring back detail and highlights.
