

Tecnica del vellum colorato sul retro

UN PROGETTO DALLA NOSTRA DIRETTA - MY PODCAST - 19 FEBBRAIO 2024

IL PROGETTO

Create an elegant greeting card featuring delicate pink tulips with a soft watercolour effect on translucent vellum. The design is achieved by colouring the reverse side of the vellum with alcohol markers or pencils, allowing the gentle hues to show through from the front. This technique produces a beautifully understated, ethereal finish with subtle gold accents perfect for special occasions.

PASSAGGIO 1 DI 6

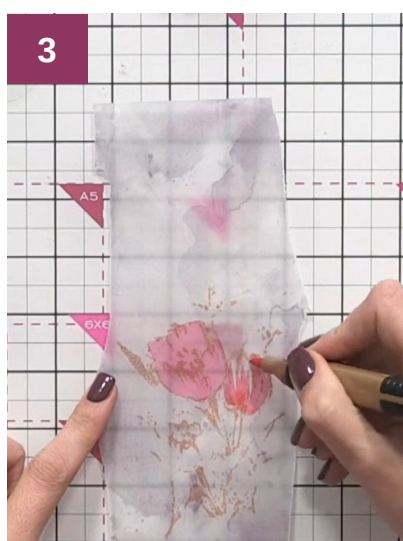

Tear or cut a piece of vellum to your desired size and shape. The vellum should have a watercolour or printed design on it.

PASSAGGIO 2 DI 6

Turn the vellum over so the back is facing you. This allows you to see how the colours look from the reverse side and continue working on the back of the piece.

PASSAGGIO 3 DI 6

Turn the vellum over and use alcohol markers or coloured pencils to add colour to the back. Start by colouring the main floral elements with pink tones, building up the colour gradually.

PASSAGGIO 4 DI 6

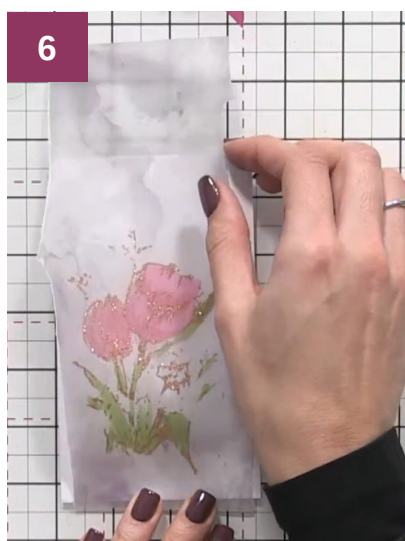

Add a second, darker shade to create shadow and depth on the floral design. Use a darker tone to add dimension to the petals and stems.

PASSAGGIO 5 DI 6

Turn the vellum over to reveal the front. The floral image now appears soft and subtle with the coloured backing showing through the translucent vellum.

PASSAGGIO 6 DI 6

Mount the decorated vellum onto a white or contrasting card base using a tape runner or small glue dots. Position the vellum carefully to ensure the floral design is centred on the card.

CONSIGLI DALLA PUNTATA

- Alcohol markers create a more vibrant effect than pencils when colouring the back of vellum.
- Do not worry about colouring neatly; the vellum softens and diffuses the colour, creating an intentional, artistic effect.
- Colouring from the back protects your best markers and nibs from the textured vellum surface.
