

Floating Word Card with Patterned Paper Layers

UN PROGETTO DALLA NOSTRA DIRETTA - CREATE AND CRAFT TV - 16 OTTOBRE 2023

IL PROGETTO

Make an elegant card with a split sentiment that appears to float across a scenic winter landscape. The 'Greetings' word is die-cut and separated into top and bottom sections, revealing the detailed black and white village scene beneath with touches of pink watercolour. This clever layering technique creates dimension and draws the eye through the card design.

PASSO PASSO

PASSAGGIO 1 DI 10

Select a patterned paper mount from the Painted Mounts collection and position your word die (such as 'Greetings' from the Christmas Snow Drift die set) on top of it, ready to cut through the mount.

CONSIGLI DALLA PUNTATA

- For a true floating effect, use acetate instead of white card for the word layer so it appears to float.
- This technique works beautifully with patterned papers that have visual interest.
