IL PROGETTO FINITO

IL PROGETTO

Make an eye-catching popup gift card holder with artistic hand-drawn imagery, soft pink and purple watercolour backgrounds, and witty wine-themed sentiments. Using die-cutting techniques with decorative stitch details and score lines, you'll create a professional card with a recessed gift card slot and matching belly band wrap for a polished finish.

PASSO PASSO

PASSAGGIO 1 DI 8

If you prefer the belly band to wrap the other way, attach an extender piece of white card to the back of the die-cut band using adhesive to extend its length. Position the cupcake motif on the front of the extended belly band.

CONSIGLI DALLA PUNTATA

- You can use any papers from your stash, not just the included ones, to create different variations.
- The belly band can be worn either way around depending on your preference.
- You can build the gift card holder into a larger card design by attaching it to a card base with background elements.
