

Everyday Collection Bookmark Gift Card Holder

UN PROGETTO DALLA NOSTRA DIRETTA - MONDAY PODCAST - 4 SETTEMBRE 2023

IL PROGETTO

Create an elegant gift card holder featuring a beautiful bookmark element. This sophisticated design combines white laser-cut rose patterns with floral patterned paper in pink, navy and green tones. The project uses layering and hinge techniques to create a wrap-style card that opens to reveal both a gift card pocket and a decorative bookmark.

PASSAGGIO 2 DI 9

Die cut the wrap element from the floral patterned paper using the hinge die from the collection. This creates the decorative rose-patterned overlay piece that will wrap around the card.

PASSAGGIO 3 DI 9

Cut a small strip from the edge of the navy blue floral patterned paper panel to create a bookmark. Use the pink corner piece as a guide for the width.

Glue the bookmark strip to the back of the wrap panel with the navy floral pattern. Trim any excess from the bookmark so it extends just slightly beyond the fold line of the panel.

CONSIGLI DALLA PUNTATA

- If making this a permanent fixture, seal the brooch clasp on only one side to allow the gift card or bookmark to move freely.
- This design works beautifully for wedding invitations with ceremony details inside or thank-you cards.
