

Embossing Folder Ink Pad Texture Technique

EEN PROJECT UIT ONZE LIVESHOW - MONDAY PODCAST - 17 APRIL 2023

HET EINDRESULTAAT

OVER DIT PROJECT

Create an elegant textured background using an embossing folder and ink pad. This technique produces a subtle floral design in pink and black tones on white cardstock by selectively inking the raised portions of the embossing folder. The result is a sophisticated embossed effect perfect for card making and papercrafts.

STAP VOOR STAP

1

STAP 1 VAN 5

Examine your embossing folder to identify which side has the raised areas and which has the debossed (recessed) areas. This will help you determine where to apply ink for the best textured effect.

2

STAP 2 VAN 5

Swipe a black ink pad across only the raised portions of the embossing folder, ensuring you only ink the raised design elements.

3

STAP 3 VAN 5

Use a tissue or cloth to gently wipe away excess ink from the raised areas of the embossing folder. This prevents harsh lines and creates a softer, more subtle texture on your card.

4

STAP 4 VAN 5

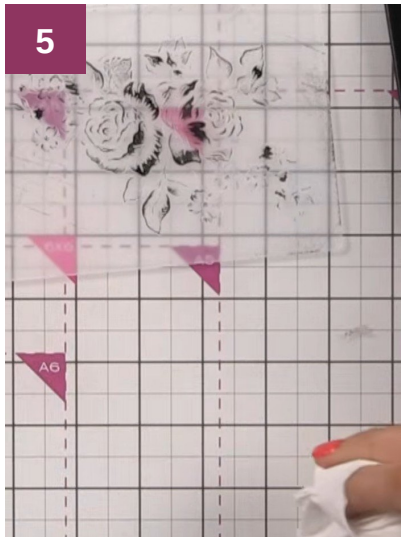

Place your white cardstock into the embossing folder, pressing it firmly into the debossed areas on both the front and back. Ensure the cardstock is positioned correctly to capture the full embossed pattern.

STAP 5 VAN 5

Carefully peel away the cardstock from the stamp platform to reveal the textured floral print. The ink will appear only in the debossed recesses of the design, creating a subtle, elegant effect.

TIPS UIT DE SHOW

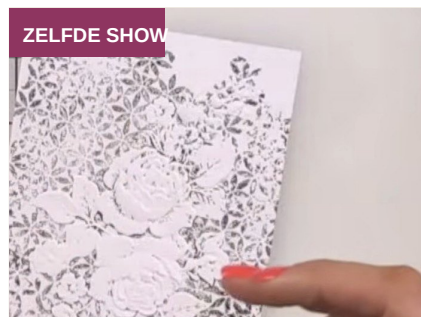

- Be careful to apply ink only to the raised portions to keep the effect clean and defined.
- Gently tap and brush the ink pad to control coverage and avoid getting ink on the debossed side.
