

Interactive Acetate Window Card with Stamped Bunnies

EEN PROJECT UIT ONZE LIVESHOW - CREATE TOGETHER CLUB - 17 JANUARI 2023

OVER DIT PROJECT

Create a charming interactive card featuring adorable stamped bunnies visible through a clear acetate window. This elegant design combines soft watercoloured bunnies with vintage-style patterned papers in muted greys and pinks, layered to create a beautiful dimensional effect. The project uses simple stamping, watercolouring and layering techniques to achieve a professional finish.

STAP VOOR STAP

1

STAP 1 VAN 11

Stamp the rabbit family image onto wood grain patterned paper using black ink. Position the stamp to show the bunnies clearly on the wood grain background.

2

STAP 2 VAN 11

Using a water brush and brown watercolour from your palette, add light washes of colour to the stamped bunny image. Keep the washes subtle so the wood grain texture remains visible underneath.

STAP 4 VAN 11

Score and fold a card blank to create a side-fold base. Cut an acetate panel slightly larger than the card front to create an overhang effect around the edges.

STAP 5 VAN 11

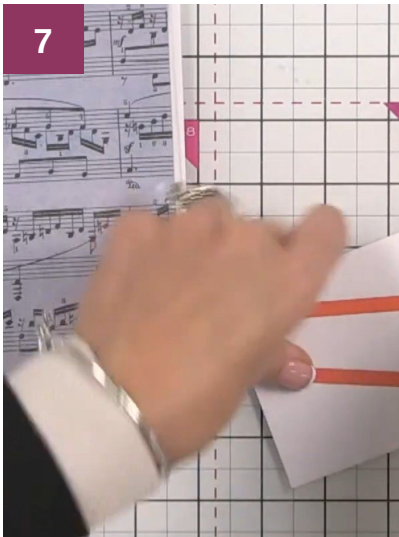

Apply red liner tape to the hinge at the back of the acetate panel. Position the tape along the edge where the acetate will fold.

STAP 6 VAN 11

Adhere the card blank to the back of the acetate using red liner tape, ensuring it is centred with a small halo of acetate visible around the edges.

TIPS UIT DE SHOW

- If you don't own acetate, use the clear plastic carrier sheet from the back of unused stamps.
- Hide all tape and makings on the inside and back of the card by covering with matching patterned paper.
- You can add ribbon or cotton wrapped around the acetate window for extra embellishment.
