OVER DIT PROJECT

Create a bold mixed-media card with a striking textured background combining red and green ink splashes with subtle pixel pattern stencilling. Layer gaming-themed stamps and a crisp sentiment panel featuring 'I Don't Get Old I Level Up' for an edgy, contemporary finish. STAP VOOR STAP

STAP 1 VAN 12

Prepare a piece of linen-effect textured card as your base. This textured surface will allow the ink pads to catch the grain and create interesting effects.

STAP 2 VAN 12

Using a distress oxide red ink pad and a cloth, lightly brush the red ink across the card surface to catch the raised texture and create random marks around the edges.

STAP 3 VAN 12

Position the pixel pattern stencil over the centre of the card panel. Using a sponge dauber, lightly dust red ink through the stencil to create texture, applying gentle pressure to avoid heavy coverage.

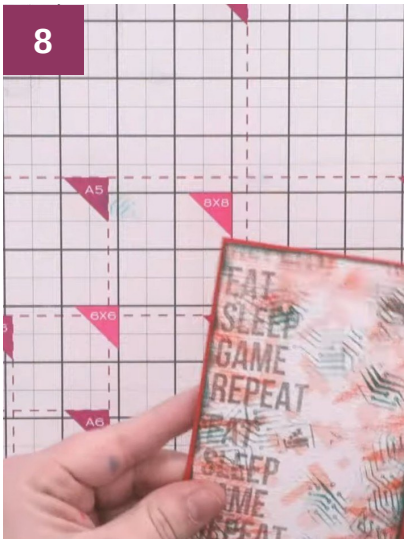
STAP 7 VAN 12

Dab your finger onto the grey ink pad and press the Game Over background stamp onto it. Press the stamp down in various areas across the card to add electronic circuit-like patterns, rotating the stamp to create different areas of the pattern.

BEKIJK DEZE STAP - 29:45



STAP 8 VAN 12

Mount the textured background panel onto a red card base using adhesive, ensuring the green inked edges are visible around the border.

STAP 9 VAN 12

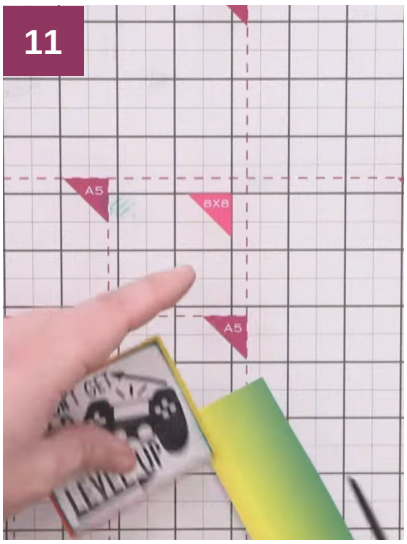
Stamp the 'I don't get old, I level up' sentiment onto linen-effect card using black ink. Press firmly multiple times to ensure a crisp image on the textured surface.

BEKIJK DEZE STAP - 31:45

STAP 10 VAN 12

Trim the sentiment panel to size. Lightly brush the green ink pad over the black stamped image to tone it down and create a grungy effect that matches the card's aesthetic.

BEKIJK DEZE STAP - 34:00



STAP 11 VAN 12

Cut out the sentiment panel using scissors. Attach foam pads to the back of the panel.

BEKIJK DEZE STAP - 35:00

STAP 12 VAN 12

Position the sentiment panel slightly above centre on the card base. Add green glitter dots or Stickles randomly around the card to pick out the electrode circles and add dimension.

TIPS UIT DE SHOW

• Don't worry about complete, perfect prints on textured card; partial impressions add to the distressed aesthetic.
• Step out of your comfort zone and try techniques you wouldn't normally use—mixed media and messy approaches can be very effective.
• Use an uneven number of embellishments (such as three) when adding sparkle or details, as this always looks better visually.
