

Acetate Envelope Box with Coordinating Cards

EEN PROJECT UIT ONZE LIVESHOW - CREATE AND CRAFT - 19 NOVEMBER 2022

OVER DIT PROJECT

Create a beautiful clear acetate box to hold coordinating cards and envelopes. This elegant project uses thick acetate paper that can be scored without clouding, creating a transparent presentation box that showcases your handmade cards in soft pink tones. The main techniques include scoring acetate, assembling a box structure, and coordinating card designs.

TIPS UIT DE SHOW

- The thick acetate construction weight does not cloud when scored, unlike thinner acetate
- Use red liner tape or high-tack adhesive for best results with acetate
- You can make multiple boxes in different colours and use them for gift sets or storage
