

Watercolour Wash Background Card with Coloured Drips

EEN PROJECT UIT ONZE LIVESHOW - CREATE TOGETHER CLUB - 3 NOVEMBER 2022

OVER DIT PROJECT

Create an artistic watercolour background card with beautiful pink and purple washes, complemented by loose drips and splats. This expressive technique uses watercolour paints to build up soft colour gradients, finished with gold pen accents forming a cross design. The result is a stunning contemporary background perfect for layering stamped sentiments or images.

STAP VOOR STAP

1

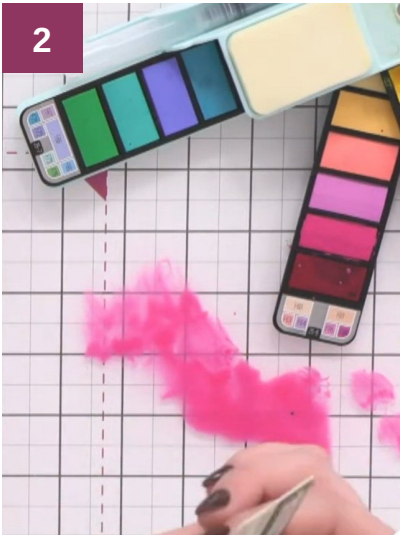

STAP 1 VAN 10

Take a piece of white cardstock and wet the right side with clean water using a brush. Apply the water evenly across the area where you want to create the watercolour wash effect.

3

STAP 3 VAN 10

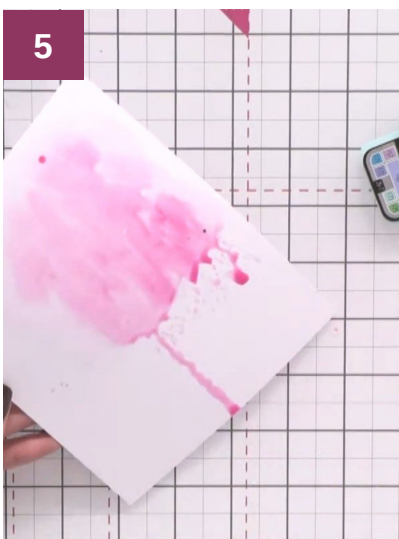

Drop pink paint onto the wet area of the card. Tilt the card to encourage the colour to flow downwards and create drips.

BEKIJK DEZE STAP - 10:30

STAP 4 VAN 10

Using a wet brush or by flicking water onto the painted area, add additional water to help the pink paint drips run further down the card. The water will encourage the paint to flow and create longer drip effects.

STAP 5 VAN 10

Mix a tealy blue colour and add it to the wet area on your card. Allow the blue to blend with the pink, creating purple tones where the colours meet.

BEKIJK DEZE STAP - 11:30

STAP 6 VAN 10

Add more water to the pink watercolour wash to encourage additional drips and movement of the colour down the card.

BEKIJK DEZE STAP - 12:15

7

STAP 7 VAN 10

Allow the watercolour wash background to dry completely before proceeding to the next step.

BEKIJK DEZE STAP - 12:45

8

STAP 8 VAN 10

Mix a darker blue with less water and more pigment to create a more concentrated colour. Using a brush, paint horizontal lines across the card to add detail and depth to your watercolour wash background.

BEKIJK DEZE STAP - 13:00

9

STAP 9 VAN 10

Mix gold ink with water and use a paintbrush to add additional horizontal lines across the watercolour wash background for added detail and dimension.

TIPS UIT DE SHOW

- Don't over-saturate normal cardstock with water or it will buckle.
- Keep working with your card right to the very end and don't give up if it looks like a hot mess.
- You can use ink pads instead of watercolours if you don't have watercolours to hand.
