

Monochromatic Dreamy Blooms Layered Card

EEN PROJECT UIT ONZE LIVESHOW - CREATE TOGETHER CLUB - 10 FEBRUARI 2025

OVER DIT PROJECT

Create a sophisticated monochromatic birthday card featuring a beautiful layered bloom design. Using the Dreamy Blooms stencil and stamps, you'll build up dramatic grey tones on black cardstock with a water-sprayed resist technique for an artistic, abstract finish. The result is an elegant, contemporary card with striking visual depth perfect for special occasions.

2

STAP 2 VAN 12

Apply stencil number one using a light grey ink pad and blending brush, creating splat details around the edges of your card.

3

STAP 3 VAN 12

Press stencil number two onto the card with slightly more pressure to create a watermark effect in the same grey tone. Use the blending tool to apply the grey ink through the stencil.

4

STAP 4 VAN 12

Stamp the large flower outline onto the card using grey ink. Lightly spray with water to create a bleed effect around the stamped image.

5

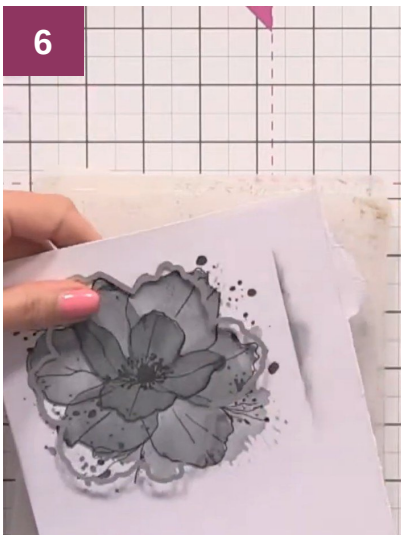

STAP 5 VAN 12

Stamp over the same flower outline again using black ink to create an abstracted, layered effect with the grey showing through. This creates a resist-style look with depth and dimension.

STAP 7 VAN 12

Score white card in half to create a small card base. Layer a piece of black card onto the front of the card base for contrast.

BEKIJK DEZE STAP - 41:00

STAP 8 VAN 12

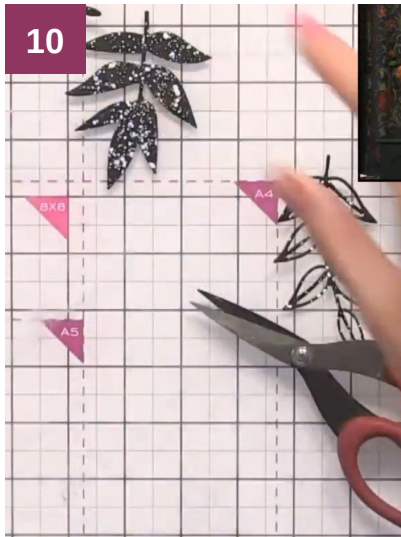

Apply white ink or paint to the black skeleton leaves and foliage pieces using a sponge or ink pad. This will make them stand out against the black card background.

BEKIJK DEZE STAP - 44:00

STAP 9 VAN 12

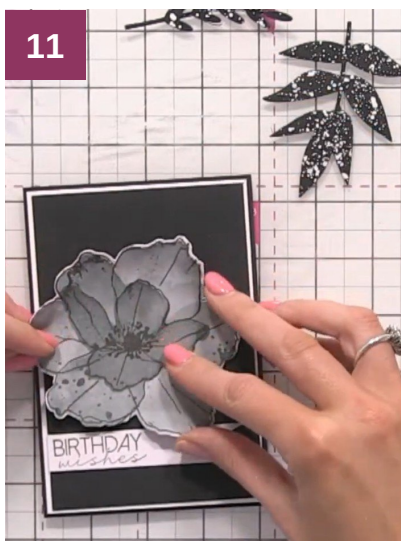

Stamp a small sentiment such as 'Birthday Wishes' onto white card stock using black ink.

STAP 10 VAN 12

Cut the sentiment into a banner shape with a fishtail or pointed tail at one end using scissors.

STAP 11 VAN 12

Adhere the white-painted foliage pieces to the black card base using foam pads for dimension.

BEKIJK DEZE STAP - 51:00

STAP 12 VAN 12

TIPS UIT DE SHOW

- You can create a monochromatic effect in any colour by using card blanks and ink pads in the same colour family—try red, pink or yellow for different moods.
- If you cut the die-cut foliage, you will lose some of the splat details, but you can preserve them by using the stencils on the background paper instead.
- Create together Club encourages you to use alternatives from your existing craft stash rather than purchasing new items each time.
