

Watercoloured Embossed Floral Card with Vintage Wood Panel Effect

EEN PROJECT UIT ONZE LIVESHOW - MY PODCAST - 20 JANUARI 2025

OVER DIT PROJECT

Create a beautiful vintage-style card featuring watercoloured embossed florals with a distressed wood panel effect. This project combines embossing, watercolouring, and layering techniques to build depth and dimension. The finished card showcases soft blue and purple tones with white highlights for an elegant, aged appearance.

STAP VOOR STAP

STAP 1 VAN 14

Cut a piece of watercolour card to size and place it inside the White Rose embossing folder, ensuring the card is positioned correctly within the folder.

STAP 2 VAN 14

Place your embossed white rose folder with the watercolour paper inside into your die-cutting machine. Run it through the machine to emboss the floral design onto the card.

BEKIJK DEZE STAP - 19:45

STAP 3 VAN 14

Using a water brush, wet individual petals one at a time on the embossed rose design. Work carefully petal by petal to prepare the surface for watercolouring.

BEKIJK DEZE STAP - 21:00

STAP 4 VAN 14

Drop yellow watercolour onto the wet petals using a brush or pen, allowing the water to carry the colour naturally across each petal. Work petal by petal to create a soft, blended effect.

BEKIJK DEZE STAP - 25:30

STAP 5 VAN 14

Add pink watercolour on top of the yellow areas. Pounce the colour into the embossed lines to create depth and dimension in the floral design.

BEKIJK DEZE STAP - 26:15

STAP 6 VAN 14

Paint the leaves with green watercolour using a water brush. Add darker green down the centre veins and blend with water for a natural effect.

BEKIJK DEZE STAP - 29:30

STAP 7 VAN 14

Ink up the embossing folder with peacock feathers oxide ink pad, swiping it across the raised design to cover the floral pattern.

BEKIJK DEZE STAP - 36:00

8

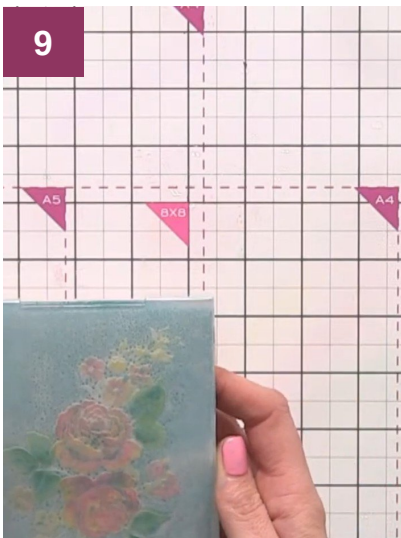

STAP 8 VAN 14

Lightly spray the inked embossing folder with water to help transfer the ink to the paper. The layers can be up to seven deep, so ensure even coverage.

BEKIJK DEZE STAP - 49:45

9

STAP 9 VAN 14

Place the painted card back into the inked embossing folder with the white rose design and run it through the die cutting machine to emboss the design over the watercoloured flowers.

BEKIJK DEZE STAP - 51:30

10

STAP 10 VAN 14

Use a white ink pad to pounce over the darker areas of the embossed floral design to bring back highlights and add detail to the watercoloured surface.

BEKIJK DEZE STAP - 53:00

11

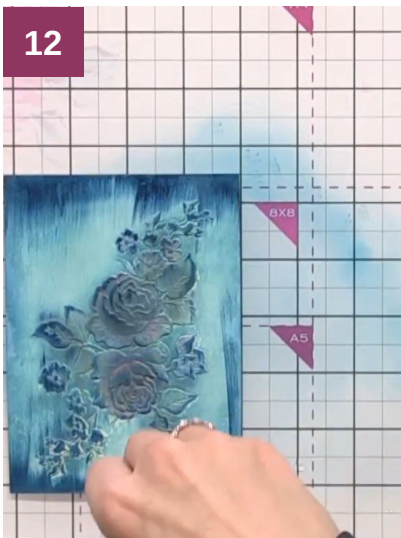

STAP 11 VAN 14

Apply black ink to the embossed design on the turquoise panel using an ink pad. Run the panel through the die-cutting machine with the embossing folder again to deepen the shadows and add dimension to the floral design.

BEKIJK DEZE STAP - 1:01:00

12

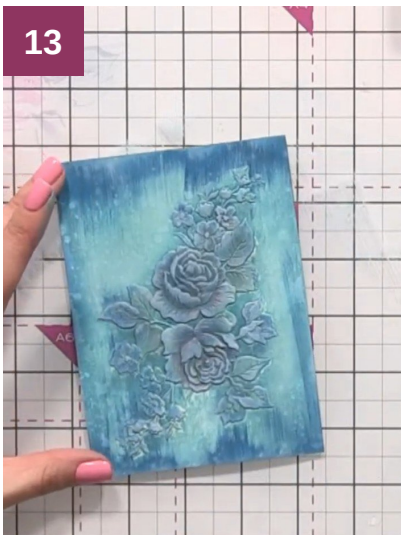

STAP 12 VAN 14

Flick water onto the card surface to create a crackle effect. Use a piece of tissue to gently mop up the excess ink, creating a distressed, vintage finish on the blue watercoloured background.

BEKIJK DEZE STAP - 1:04:30

13

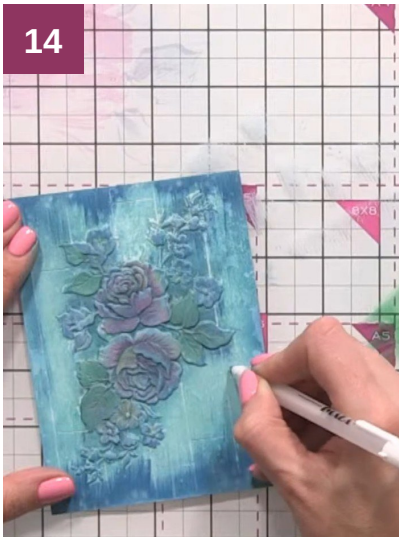

STAP 13 VAN 14

Use a white gel pen to draw faux wood panel lines across the blue watercoloured background to create a vintage wood effect. Draw the lines vertically down the card to mimic wooden planks.

BEKIJK DEZE STAP - 1:06:30

14

STAP 14 VAN 14

Using a white pen or marker, add fine highlights to the embossed roses to make them stand out against the aged blue background. Focus on the raised petals and edges of the flowers for maximum contrast.

TIPS UIT DE SHOW

- Work petal by petal with watercolour, placing colour at the bottom and sides of each petal for a natural watercolour finish.
- The watercolour card allows you to move and blend colours even after they have dried, unlike regular card stock.
- You can recover from dark ink by layering white ink on top to bring back detail and highlights.
