

Halo Effect Stencilled Flowers on Black Card with Watercolour Ink

EEN PROJECT UIT ONZE LIVESHOW - MIGHTY MONDAY - 6 JANUARI 2025

OVER DIT PROJECT

Create a stunning halo effect floral design on black card using a layered stencilling technique. Apply white ink as a base beneath vibrant watercolour inks in purple, blue and grey tones, then enhance with diluted confetti inks for a soft, ethereal finish. The white underlay allows the colours to glow beautifully against the dark background, producing an elegant, ghostlike effect with delicate shading.

STAP VOOR STAP

1

STAP 1 VAN 8

Position your floral stencil on black card. Using a blending brush, apply white pigment ink through the stencil, building up a solid base layer of white over the design.

2

STAP 2 VAN 8

Allow the white ink to dry slightly, then gently press the black card with your hands to flatten it and ensure the stencilled design is evenly set.

3

STAP 3 VAN 8

Mix a small amount of coloured confetti ink with water on a glass mat to create a diluted paint consistency. Use a brush to blend the ink and water together until you achieve a watercolour-like consistency.

STAP 4 VAN 8

Using a damp brush, paint the diluted purple ink over the white stencilled floral design on the black card. Allow the water to help the colour move and blend across the petals.

BEKIJK DEZE STAP - 17:45

5

STAP 5 VAN 8

Allow the first colour layer to dry back completely. Observe how the watercolour ink becomes lighter and more ghostlike as the water evaporates from the black card surface.

BEKIJK DEZE STAP - 19:00

6

STAP 6 VAN 8

Layer a second colour on top of the first to create shading effects. Use less water for deeper colour saturation in areas where you want more intensity.

STAP 7 VAN 8

Once the ink is completely dry, use a white gel pen to outline the stencilled floral design. Work carefully around the petals and leaves to add definition and precision to the image.

BEKIJK DEZE STAP - 32:45

STAP 8 VAN 8

Add decorative elements around your floral design using a white gel pen. Draw wonky lines and hash marks to anchor the artwork on the black card.

TIPS UIT DE SHOW

- Colour on black card stock normally does not show well, but the white ink underneath acts as a base layer allowing colours to sit proud and be visible.
- Use less water on your brush for darker, more saturated colour; use more water for lighter, ghostlike effects.
- You do not need to follow the stencil lines perfectly when painting; freehand painting over the white base creates a natural, artistic look.
