

Kaart met pocketdetail en fussy-cut bloemen

EEN PROJECT UIT ONZE LIVESHOW - CREATE TOGETHER CLUB CHAPTER 3 - 13 MAART 2024

OVER DIT PROJECT

Create an elegant card featuring a striking geometric pocket design with layered black strips forming a diamond pattern over a delicate pink floral background. The card combines dimensional fussy-cut flowers and leaves with a functional pocket element, all mounted on a pink and black layered card base. This technique showcases precision cutting and layering skills whilst adding an interactive element to your handmade card.

STAP VOOR STAP

STAP 1 VAN 7

Select a floral patterned paper featuring purple and pink flowers. Adhere it to your pink card base, creating a layered panel with the black mat showing as a border.

STAP 2 VAN 7

Cut a strip of pink card stock to create the pocket opening detail on the front of your card. Position it across the middle section of the layered floral panel.

STAP 3 VAN 7

Adhere the pocket strip to the front of your card, applying adhesive only to the bottom and side edges. Leave the top edge unglued to create a pocket opening.

STAP 4 VAN 7

Fussy cut individual flowers and leaves from the floral patterned paper using small scissors. Cut carefully around the petals and leaf shapes to create detailed floral embellishments.

6

STAP 6 VAN 7

Arrange your fussy-cut floral elements on the card to create a balanced cluster. Layer the flowers from back to front, building up dimension as you position them.

7

STAP 7 VAN 7

Add a sentiment stamp or die-cut word to the centre of your card to complete the design. Position it carefully on the floral background for best effect.

TIPS UIT DE SHOW

- You can create a pocket on the front of a card as well as on the inside for added interest.
- Use glitter glues and sparkly embellishments to add dimension and catch the light on your flowers.
