

Kaart met aquarelbloemen van laagjesstempels

EEN PROJECT UIT ONZE LIVESHOW - CREATE AND CRAFT TV - 30 DECEMBER 2023

OVER DIT PROJECT

Create a stunning floral greeting card featuring watercolour-style blooms in soft pinks, oranges and blues arranged in a wreath design. Using a clever four-layer stamping system with alignment guides, you'll build up dimensional flowers and foliage before die-cutting them all at once with the coordinating plate. The finished card combines the delicate beauty of watercolour painting with the precision of layered stamping for a professional result.

STAP VOOR STAP

1

STAP 1 VAN 8

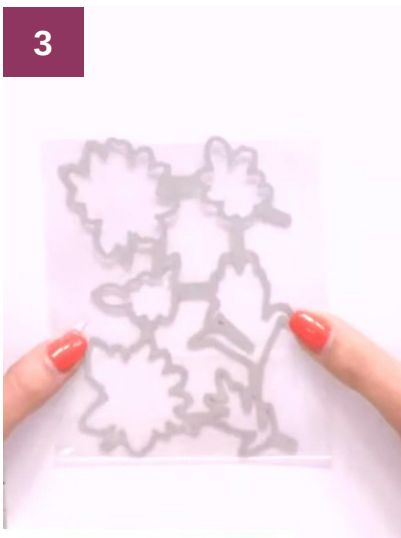

Stamp the first layer of your chosen flower design onto white cardstock using black ink. The stamps are numbered to show the layering order - start with stamp number 1.

STAP 2 VAN 8

Line up the second layer stamp by aligning the central heart guide with the first stamped image. Ink the stamp and press it down carefully to stamp the second layer on top of the first.

5

STAP 5 VAN 8

Repeat the four-stamp sequence across your paper, stamping the floral images in the same order. Continue until you have created a full sheet of watercolour flowers.

6

STAP 6 VAN 8

Position the coordinating cover plate die over the stamped flowers on your card front, ensuring it frames the floral design correctly.

7

STAP 7 VAN 8

Run the stamped and coloured floral panel through your die-cutting machine with the coordinating die to cut out all the flowers at once. This will create clean, precise edges around each stamped element.

8

STAP 8 VAN 8

Use the die-cut flowers to embellish your cards or projects. Layer and arrange the floral elements as desired to create dimension and visual interest.

TIPS UIT DE SHOW

- The central heart guide on each stamp ensures perfect alignment every time.
- You don't need to cut out the flowers individually—the cover plate die cuts them all at once.
- These watercolour flowers work beautifully layered over the cover plate designs from the one-day special.
