EEN PROJECT UIT ONZE LIVESHOW - THE ART OF CARDISTRY - 30 OKTOBER 2023

HET EINDRESULTAAT

OVER DIT PROJECT

Create a beautiful vintage-style card featuring delicate pink chrysanthemums on aged kraft paper. Using a two-part lamination stamp system, you'll achieve a stunning painted watercolour effect with distressed edges and an authentic aged appearance. This forgiving technique requires no paintbrush, making it perfect for achieving professional-looking results with ease.

TIPS UIT DE SHOW

- Don't worry if the detail layer doesn't line up perfectly—the forgiving nature of lamination stamps means slight misalignment still looks wonderful.
- You can distress the edges with tea or brown ink for extra vintage effect.
- Trust the process: the two-part system creates a painted finish that looks professional even if you've never picked up a brush.
