

Layered Floral Stencil Card with Ink Blending

3 APRIL 2026

Create a stunning multi-layered floral card using layering stencils and ink blending techniques. This project demonstrates how to build depth and dimension using simple ink colours applied in stages, resulting in a professional-looking botanical design.

From our live show HOBBYMAKER TV - Join us for the latest show - Broadcast 3rd April 2026 (3 April 2026) - watch it from 22:00.

WHAT YOU WILL NEED

See the show for everything used.

Secure your first layering stencil (marked with number 1) to your card using magnets or tape, aligning the heart registration marks.

Apply a darker shade of the same colour to deepen the layered effect, building dimension gradually.

Watch this step: 27:00 into the show

Position the third stencil layer and apply a contrasting colour for the foliage elements.

Watch this step: 27:45 into the show

Apply the fourth stencil layer with a darker green, varying the ink coverage to create natural-looking shading.

Watch this step: 28:30 into the show

Align and apply the final detail stencil with a darker shade to add definition to the flower centres and leaf details.

Watch this step: 29:00 into the show

Die-cut the completed stencilled image using the coordinating die, aligning carefully with low-tack tape if needed.

TIPS FROM THE SHOW

- You don't need multiple ink colours; you can layer the same colour darker by applying it multiple times.
- If the stencil moves slightly during application, don't worry—slight variations add to the realistic appearance.
- Clean stencils between colours using a baby wipe or microfibre cloth, as they are wipeable and reusable.
