

Wolf Head Silhouette Moon with Textured...

27 AUGUST 2026

Create an artistic card using a wolf head stencil as an unconventional moon shape, embossed with textured powder for dimension. This design replaces a traditional circular moon with an animal silhouette, adding visual interest and a unique focal point to your card.

From our live show THE THURSDAY DROP - Latest Products from Toni - Broadcast 27th August 2026 (27 August 2026) - watch it from 46:00.

TIPS FROM THE SHOW

- Hold the stencil very still when stamping through it to ensure crisp definition.
- Don't panic if you see smoke when heat embossing white pigment ink—this is normal.
- A vignette frames your work and draws the eye to the focal point without being obvious.
