

Lamination Stamp Card with Watercolour Technique

15 AUGUST 2026

Create a glamorous portrait card using the two-part lamination stamp system. You ink and spray the coloured base layer, then add detailed facial features and embellishments for an elevated, artistic finish without needing painting skills.

From our live show HOBBYMAKER TV - Join us for the latest show - Broadcast 2 p.m. (UK) 15th August 2026 (15 August 2026) - watch it from 14:45.

TIPS FROM THE SHOW

- If using normal card stock instead of watercolour card stock, the ink will dry very quickly, so work fast when blending colours.
- The lamination system is forgiving with alignment—slight misalignment still looks artistic and sketch-like rather than precise.
- You can use different ink pad colours for the base layer; the watercolour effect works with any colour choice.
