

Reflection Trees Landscape Card with Stamping...

9 JUNE 2024

Create three stunning landscape cards featuring reflection trees, each capturing a different time of day. Using a single stamp design, you'll produce morning, noon and night scenes through varied stamping techniques and colour intensities. The finished cards showcase silhouetted trees with their reflections, creating atmospheric effects in aqua, purple and grey tones.

STEP 1

STEP 2

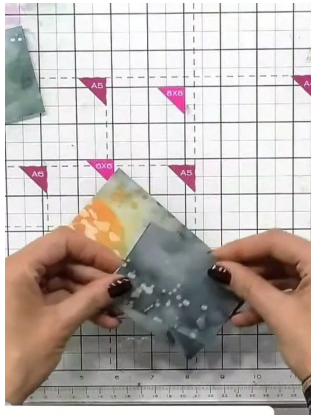

Select three pre-printed card panels from your magazine, each featuring a different background colour or pattern. These will form the base for your landscape cards.

Ink your reflection tree stamp fully with black ink and stamp it onto the first panel, positioning the reflection down the centre.

STEP 3

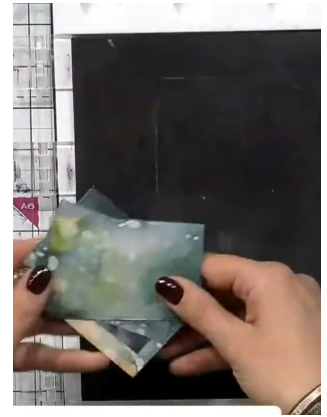

Apply ink only to the top portion of the tree stamp. Stamp this onto the bottom section of the same panel to create a lighter reflection effect below the main trees.

STEP 4

Position the stamp higher on your second panel and stamp only the top portion to create a different tree formation.

STEP 5

Apply ink to the second panel to create the reflection effect. Work the ink to create a darker tone at the top, gradually lightening towards the bottom for a natural reflection appearance.

On your third panel, stamp only the bottom portion of the tree stamp, omitting the reflection section to create a different composition. Position the stamp carefully to capture just the lower trees and foliage.

STEP 7

Apply darker ink to the top portion of the tree stamp to create contrast in the sky area. Stamp the trees onto the card to complete the third variation of the reflection landscape.

Using a white gel pen, add highlights to the trees on your finished panels to create the effect of sunlight or moonlight coming through the foliage.

STEP 9

Mount your three stamped panels onto black card stock in sequence, arranging them to tell a story from morning through to night. Position the panels side by side to create a triptych effect showing the progression of the day.

Add a sentiment from your stamp set to complete your card. Position it in a suitable location on the front of your card and stamp it clearly.

TIPS FROM THE SHOW

- One stamp can be used three different ways by varying where you apply ink and how you position the stamp on your card.
- The reflection system tells a story—use it to convey time of day or emotion in your card design.
- You can use sentiments from your stamp set or watercolour over them to push them back in the design.
