

Reflection Silhouette Dance Card

8 JUNE 2026

Create a striking silhouette card featuring a dancer in two poses - one upright and one reflected below - stamped in black ink on a circular gradient background. The design uses a beautiful blue-to-pink ombre effect with the reflection technique enhanced by a purple floor line and white gel pen highlights for a dynamic, modern look. This contemporary card combines stamping and ink blending techniques to produce an eye-catching piece perfect for celebrating friendship and movement.

STEP 3

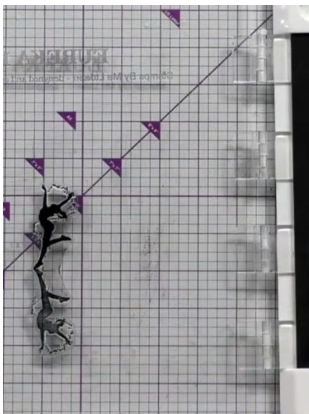

Stamp the top dancer image clearly onto the white circle area of your card using black ink. Ensure the stamped image is crisp and well-positioned in the centre of the circle.

Gently pat the ink onto the bottom reflected dancer image to create a lighter, more uneven shadow effect. Use a patting motion rather than firm pressure to achieve a softer, duller appearance.

Apply black ink fully over the top dancer stamp image to create a solid silhouette effect. Use your ink applicator to cover the entire stamped design completely.

STEP 6

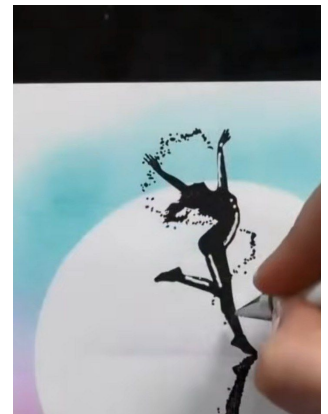

Flip the stamp over and stamp the reflected dancer image below the first dancer, creating a mirror effect. Position it carefully to align with the circular gradient background.

Using a white brush pen or white ink with a brush, add a faux floor line across the centre of the card between the two dancer silhouettes.

TIPS FROM THE SHOW

- You can vary the ink saturation on the reflected image to create a natural shadow effect.
- The reflection stamps allow you to create complex effects without needing to recreate images manually.
- Adding a faux floor line with a contrasting ink colour helps define the space between the dancer and reflection.
